A meeting of the Parish Council was held in the Parish Hall at 7.30 pm on Tuesday 1 March 2022.

Public Participation

up to 15 mins.

Resident 1 spoke about the parking problems on Redbrook Lane on a Saturday, a Sunday and at school times, particularly causing an obstruction outside no 50 Redbrook Lane. Cars have been parking right where a bus stop is and even though there are double yellow lines, they still park there and the car owners seem to think that that is okay as long as the cars are wholly on the pavement. The resident wanted to know if the council could do anything in these circumstances. The Clerk to write to both the District Council and Highways to see if a parking attendant could visit the area regularly

Resident 2 spoke about the problems with the trains and buses because of the reduced service. Residents may be able to get into Rugeley but they cannot always get back. The lady has a mobility scooter and she finds this very difficult and she asked the council if provision could be made in Rugeley by the bus station, for people to securely park their mobility scooters for up to one hour at a time. The Vice Chair to talk to the District Council and this will be followed up by a letter from the council

4 BUS SERVICE

The Clerk reported that she had had no reply from J B Henderson, the CEO of Staffordshire County Council (SCC) or from the MP Mrs Amanda Milling although the Clerk had been in touch with her Constituency Office and had ascertained that Ms Milling had contacted D&G Buses after a communication from Brereton and Ravenhill Parish Council in December. D&G Buses had told her that they had no plans to increase the current provision and so she then contacted J B Henderson. The Clerk was advised to send chasing letters and also to ask what had happened to the extra funds that were supposed to be devoted to public transport. Promises of extra funds had been made by SCC and by the government as part of its levelling-up agenda.

The Queen's Jubilee

The remainder of the Members' Items came from Cllr C Hodgkiss who had sent in a note to be read out, as follows.

- Has anyone thought about obtaining a book of condolences in the event of the Queen's death? It was thought that one such book could be obtained at the time

- She asked about Brereton and Ravenhill Parish Council's plans
- Brereton Million will produce a leaflet telling people what events are going on around Brereton
- Brereton Million have secured the jubilee torch but need somewhere to store it. So was hoping to be able to use the tennis courts as they are locked.

Miscellaneous items from Cllr Mrs C Hodgkiss:

- There are concerns locally about possible parking problems outside the micro-brewery. It was thought that if such a planning application comes to the council (it has already come in as a licence application) that that matter will be dealt with at that stage
